Itinerary:

Day Day 01: Arrival Kathmandu

Upon arrival in Kathmandu, meet our representative at the airport and transfer to hotel. Check in to the Hotel Short Briefing of your Tour. Rest for free Afternoon or come out for walk around the Kathmandu Durbar Square. In the evening, typical Nepali dinner with folk dance performances.

Day Day 02: Kathmandu Sightseeing

We start World Heritage Sites in Kathmandu. Kathmandu Durbar Square holds the palaces of the medieval Kings who ruled over the then Kathmandu Kingdom. Pashupatinath houses a sacred lingam, or the phallic symbol of Lord Shiva. The Aryaghat alongside Pashupati and on the banks of the Bagmati River is a famous funeral site for the Hindus. The Buddhists shrine of Boudhanath is one of the largest stupas in the world, and one of the holiest Buddhist pilgrimage and tourist destinations in Kathmandu. The area of Boudhnath is also famous for over 50 Tibetan monasteries. Swayambhu meaning the "the self-existent" is popular among the foreigners as the Monkey Temple owing to the large number of monkey population residing in the area.

Day Day 03: Sightseeing in the Patan City with the old village

Patan City: It is 5 km / 3 miles away from Kathmandu city. Patan also known as Lalitpur is the city of fine arts, enclosed within 4 stupas said to be built in 3rd century AD, by Emperor Ashoka. You will see the Durbar Square, the Patan Durbar which houses a bronze collection, the Krishna Temple built by King Siddhi Narsingh Malla, Hiranya Varna Mahavihar and Mahaboudha Temple. A trip to The Tibetan Refugee Camp and the Handicraft Center will also be done while visiting Patan, where you will witness the hand weaving of Tibetan carpets and molding of metal statues.

Bungamati Vilalge : A typical Newari village, lying 11km / 7 miles south of Kathmandu, founded in 7 the century AD, possesses one of the most important God of Kathmandu Valley known as Matsyendrantha – the God of Rain and compassion, worshipped equally by Hindus and Buddhists. He was accredited by the people for introducing rice plantation in the valley. A tour of this village combined with Khokana imprints, a beautiful impression on the visitors mind through it's set up and primitive way of living.
